

Declaration Of Criminal Convictions

1 Introduction

Thank you for applying to register as a volunteer for the Railway Preservation Society of Ireland (RPSI).

The RPSI employees and volunteers work closely with each other as well as members of the public, including minors. Under the Child Protection legislation the RPSI has a legal responsibility to ensure its employees and volunteers offer no risk to each other or to our public visitors and passengers.

Information about criminal convictions is requested to assist the selection process volunteers. It will be taken into account only when conviction is considered relevant to the volunteer post.

Below you are asked to disclose any criminal convictions except those which are considered 'spent'. Having unspent convictions will not necessarily debar your application from being considered.

You are expected to disclose any criminal conviction obtained after completion of this form. Such new information should be sent to the Honorary Secretary in writing.

If you do not complete and sign this form we will not accept your application to be an employee or volunteer of the RPSI.

NOTE 1: Where the term 'volunteer' is used it should be taken to include 'employee'.

NOTE 2: Before becoming a volunteer you must be a paid-up Society member.
